

Leadership

Rod A. Davis
President/CEO, Southern Nevada Market Area and St. Rose Dominican Hospitals

For more than 19 years, Rod A. Davis has been the driving force behind the growth and success of St. Rose Dominican Hospitals. Davis' responsibilities include the operations and strategic direction of three hospital campuses, oversight for 3,400 employees and management of annual net revenues exceeding $600 million.

Davis has accomplished a long list of medically-related objectives during his tenure including a significant expansion of the area's patient bed capacity as well as advocacy efforts on behalf of physicians and under- and uninsured patients. Throughout his tenure, Davis has stressed quality as a hallmark of St. Rose operations.

Davis is active in the community with involvement in numerous industry and non-industry related boards, committees, task forces and non-profit groups. His extensive community work has contributed to his being named One Of The Most Influential Men In Southern Nevada by In Business Las Vegas (2004) and one of the Most Respected CEOs In Nevada by Nevada Business Journal (2006). He also serves on several corporate-level councils and has dedicated significant time to national, state and community organizations.

An Idaho native, Davis earned his undergraduate and Master of Business Administration degrees from Idaho State University. Davis and his wife, Cathy, reside in Henderson and have three sons.

Victoria (Vicky) VanMeetren
President/CEO, St. Rose Dominican Hospitals – San Martín Campus

Vicky VanMeetren joined St. Rose Dominican Hospitals in 1996. By 1998, St. Rose had plans to build Siena, its second campus, and VanMeetren was asked to oversee its construction. When San Martín, a third campus, came on line in 2006 she was named President. VanMeetren has extensive experience in health care construction and operations having managed several hospital additions and a number of medical office buildings and ambulatory services projects.

Actively involved in the community for over 30 years, VanMeetren sits on several boards, including the Las Vegas Chamber of Commerce, The Caring Place (cancer resource center) and is the 2009 board chair for Nevada Donor Organ Network. She was named the 2007 Nevada Mother of the Year by American Mothers, Inc., recognized as one of the most influential businesspeople in Southern Nevada by In Business Las Vegas in 2007 and honored as 2008 Woman of Distinction by Nevada Alpha Delta Kappa.

VanMeetren holds a nursing degree from UNLV and spent several years as a bedside nurse before entering the management arena. She returned to UNLV twice, earning a BS in Healthcare Administration in 1996 and a MBA in 2005. VanMeetren and her husband, Steve, reside in Las Vegas and have two children.

Renato V. (Val) Baciarelli
President/CEO, St. Rose Dominican Hospitals - Rose de Lima Campus

Val Baciarelli joined St. Rose Dominican Hospitals as the market Chief Operating Officer in 2000, just prior to the opening of the Siena Campus. In this role, he made significant operational improvements to ensure organizational effectiveness, critical to the eventual opening of the third St. Rose hospital, the San Martín Campus.

In 2003, Baciarelli was named President of the Rose de Lima Campus. Since then, his focus on customer service and quality has resulted in numerous awards for the campus including being recognized as the #1 hospital in Nevada for the last four years based on Medicare quality measures and a #1 ranking in Nevada by HealthInsight for outstanding performance in the areas of leadership commitment, stable nursing environment and embedding appropriate practice.

Baciarelli has held a number of positions with Catholic Healthcare West, CHI and other not-for-profit health care systems. He is a Fellow in the American College of Healthcare Executives and received his Masters of Science in Health Care Administration from Trinity University in San Antonio, Texas.
